III. Statement of Claim.

State briefly the facts of your case. Be sure to describe how each defendant is involved and to include dates, when possible. Do not give any legal arguments or cite any cases or statutes. If you have more than one claim, each claim should be set forth in a separate numbered paragraph.

I Mr. Adrian R. Smith opened a bank account (Checking Account) with the BANK OF America in good standards. Later the ~~following~~ following year around 2014 my account was involved with some fraud activity and my account was placed under investigation. Due to the fact, no money was withdrawn from the account, due to the fraudulent activity that I had nothing to do with, my account was re-opened and back to good standards. After my account was back in good standards I had charged the account for a business transaction (investment) my investment with the company profits was stolen.

IV. Relief.

Your complaint must include a request for specific relief. State briefly exactly what you want the court to do for you. Do not make legal arguments and do not cite any cases or statutes.

statutes. Due to the fact that my (Adrian Reynard Smith) account was put into delinquency or closed for no reason I am suffering from money loss from a Business Transaction, I made with The Bank of America and would like my account to be investigated and compensated for my money loss.

I DECLARE UNDER PENALTY OF PERJURY THAT THE FOREGOING IS TRUE AND CORRECT.
